
Whispering Cedars

11-13-1936

Whispering Cedars, November 13, 1936

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/whispering_cedars

Part of the Communication Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, November 13, 1936" (1936). Whispering Cedars. 4.
https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/whispering_cedars/4

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Whispering Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

WELL-REMEMBERED VOICE CEDARS

Vol. IV, No. 3, Nov. 13, 1936

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club gave its first play of the season Monday evening in the Y. W. C. A. Room. The play was James Barrie's "A Well-Remembered Voice". The theme of this play was the spiritual return of a son who had been killed in the World War as revealed in a conversation with his father.

It was given very impressively under the direction of Miss Dorothy Anderson. The stage setting was cleverly done by Roy Linton.

Although an announcement was made to the contrary, another play will be presented in the Y. W. C. A. Room on November 23rd. This play will be another post-war play. It is a comedy in one act by A. A. Milne.

Cedrus Play

The Cedrus Play "Speeding Along" will be given December 10th at the Opera House. The cast has been chosen and rehearsals began last Thursday evening under the direction of Miss Glenna Basore. It promises to provide an evening of entertainment for everyone.

Rev. Guthrie Speaks

Rev. Guthrie led the chapel exercises Monday morning. His subject was the "Eternal Presence of the Holy Spirit as Manifested at Pentecost".

ARMISTICE DAY

"Preparedness for war is the best way to maintain peace" declared Rev. Markle in an Armistice Day address to the combined Y. M. and Y. W. groups. He gave some reminiscences of the World War. He warned youth against peace propaganda but maintained he had sympathy for those who refuse to fight except on their own soil. Esther Waddle and Paul Angell had charge of the devotional service.

Faculty Members Attend Meeting

The Ohio Director of Education has called a special meeting to discuss standards for teacher-training. Those of Cedarville College faculty attending are: Dr. McChesney, Prof. C. W. Steele, Miss Santmyer, and Prof. Hostetler.

Student Body Extends Sympathy

The student body and members of the faculty extend their sincere sympathy to Miss Elinor Hughes and the other members of the family upon the death of her mother, Mrs. Marion Hughes on last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Hughes has been suffering from a severe paralytic stroke since last August.

* * *

The date for the Y. W. C. A. Committal Service has been set for Thursday, November 19. Everyone is cordially invited.

Armistice Day

This week the whole civilized world paused in remembrance of those who gave their lives in the great World War as it celebrated the 18th Anniversary of the closing of that war to end war.

Today the nations seem once again ready to plunge into the madness of warfare. If the World War taught us anything at all, it taught us that no matter how glorious or how necessary war may have been in the past, modern war is disastrous. We went into the last war under the delusion that by this method we could secure lasting peace. We realize today that when we sow the seeds of hatred and strife we reap a harvest of the same thing.

War is not inevitable. To say that it is, is to deny that a just God rules the universe. Mankind has conquered many entrenched evils in the past--it must conquer this one in the future. Youth must realize that war is caused by certain very definite things which must be uprooted from our civilization. Some of these are: nationalism, economic tensions, profit seeking, and a personal desire for glory.

Youth must realize that the best national defense is to create no enemies. The two most secure countries in the world today are the United States and Canada, yet there is not a single fort or gun on that 3000-mile boundary. Charles Lindburgh said when he returned from his European tour, "We must find a new security that rests in intelligence and not in forts."

There is a better way than war. Jesus showed it when he said: "Love your enemies, bless them which persecute you..... Blessed are the peacemakers."

In this Armistice Day season let us take up the quarrel against their for and ours--WAR!

--Editor

The Staff

Editor-----Justin Hartman
Ass't Ed.-----Cletis Jacobs
Sports Ed.-----Ray Sisson
Art Ed.-----Katherine Finke
Bus. Mgr.-----John Tobias
Sr. Reporter-----Ruth Kimble
Jr. Reporter-----Gene Reed
Seph. Reporter-----Fred Lott
Fresh. Reporter-----Genevieve Jesson
Typist-----Bennett McNeal

* * *

On November 11th Harry Sinks was made a quarterly conference minister in the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. This entitles him to do local preaching.

Congratulations!

Students Attend Peace Meeting

A group of students attended a Peace Mass Meeting Wednesday evening at Springfield in Memorial Hall. The meeting was sponsored by the Springfield Y.M.C.A. and the speaker was Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle, pastor of First M. E. Church, Evanston, Illinois.

Those who attended were Ruth Kimble, Jane West, Cecil Thomas, Harry Wallace, and Justin Hartman.

* * *

The Whispering Cedars awards first prize to Bennett McNeal in the I Feel Futile contest for--

I feel futile--
Like love without its bliss,
Like a date without a kiss,
Like John without his Chris.
I feel futile.

A Banner-upper--
I feel futile--
Like a fence without a gate
Like a freshman on a date
Like Mrs. Ault when playgrounds late.
I feel futile.

Views of Sports

Though it might not be hard to fill Donnie Bushler's shoes literally, we find quite a problem in doing this in a sports line. Some of you may not know Donnie. Well, I'll say he was about the busiest little body one can imagine. If he wasn't trying to push Prescott down Bagley's stairs he was picking football winners or rooting heartily for a baseball or basketball team.

Well, Donnie would probably tell you of our last year's baseball nine. The team of last year won more than half its games and some of these were surely swell games. Cedarville sneaked up on a powerful Wilberforce team and defeated them 2--1, thanks to Waddles Texas League single in the seventh inning. Of the game at Wilberforce I'd like to tell about one item. Johnny Gillespie was just doing all he could to get a homer and boy did he ever sock one of those pills on the nose. Well, Johnny just sailed right around first, second, and third, but got on some wet grass along the third base line and sat down like he had been flirting with a banana peel. We all felt sorry for him except that big Wilberforce third baseman; so Johnny was put out.

Coach Ault awarded letters to the boys of the baseball nine this fall. Those receiving letters were Carlough, Waddie, Wallace, Ross, Gillespie, Jackson, Walker, Thomas, and Thompson. Bryan Wallace, and Joe Kind, who aren't enrolled this year, also received letters.

Winter is practically upon us and so is the good old sport of basketball. All of you collegians had better be on the sidelines when the whistle blows for we're going to have a real team to root for. All of last year's team has come back, and we have several real additions to the team.

Stitsworth, who was with the Ross district champs last year is in there fighting for old C. C., as well as Ken McNeal, Roberts, Heifner, and Foulke. You're latter winners of last year are Swain, Waddie, Wallace, Ross, Walker, Linton, and Gibson. So you see we have something to shout about. Come out and support the T-E-A-M.

Horseneck Riding

Rhodes: "Gee, there's a man at the circus who jumps on a horse's back, slips underneath, catches hold of its tail and finishes up on the horse's neck."

Prescott: "That's easy. I did all that the first time I ever rode a horse."

And Less Name

Minister (at baptism of baby): "His name, please."

Mother: "Randolph Morgan Montgomery Alfred Van Christopher McGuff."

Minister (to assistant): "A little more water."

Dumb-Belies Letters

"Well, sir, the upshot of it was that it took me ten years to discover that I had absolutely no talent for writing literature."

"You gave it up?"

"Oh, no. By that time I was too famous."

CUPID THRU THE KEYHOLE

Russ Roberts and Lucille Walton were seen on the College Campus Monday evening.

Mr. Cecil Thomas is still hunting frantically for someone to have a double-date and pay for all the gasoline.

John Tobias and Marthana Smith are seen together more and more frequently!

Joe Long is once again chasing up and down the street after school. He is again knocking on McChesney's door. It seems to be a habit!

Angus Murray proposed again and again he was rejected.

A good-looking Jamestown boy has taken quite an interest in a shy Springfield female!

Can you believe it? Aunt Mary Townsley has been eating her papers 1937 since the election.

Betty Swango says its all right for Sunday night. Since when did Ford start "knocking" around the high school?

What is this we hear about Vic Shaw using strong language when he received a note which pranksters had written to him?

It's certainly too bad that Bainbridge is so timid and bashful--around the College especially.

That night air is pretty cold isn't it Mary? How about a skeleton key the next time?

Linton has finally made up his mind.

Real news--Dorothy Anderson failed to make this weeks "scandal column".

And the Lackey girls, or at least two of them, had a good time Tuesday evening. They were seen speeding up and down Main Street in a black sedan. And girls, what time was it?

Good news for some lucky girl! Taylor Rhodes is reported to have bought a wedding ring.

Burns Tanksley would like to find an answer to the age-old problem that has disturbed mankind: "Can a man love three women at the same time?"

Is it an accident who's going with Aults tonight?

The Mosses. Lott, Gillespie and Linton seem rather stiff this morning. Why???

AN OLD FAVORITE

My love has flown--
Him done I dirt--
We didn't know him were a flirt.
To you in love let I forbid--
Best you be do'ed like I been did--
Darn him--we hate him--
He wish he were died--
He told me he loved I--
But darr, he lied.

And Ham!

"Some men-thirst after fame,
some after money, some after love."

"I know something all thirst after."

"What is that?"

"Salt herring."

Wupps, My Dear!

"Who's that talkative woman
over there?"

"My wife."

"Sorry. My mistake."

"No; mine."